The Collect of the Day:

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the readings

The First Lesson:

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

A Reading from Ecclesiastes.

Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help. Again, if two lie together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone? And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People:* Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 100

Lector: Please join me in reading Psalm 100. We will read it together, in unison.

1 Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; *serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

2 Know this: The Lord himself is God; *he himself has made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise; *give thanks to him and call upon his Name.

4 For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; *and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

The Second Lesson:

1 Corinthians 12:31b-13:13

Lector: A reading from Corinthians.

I will show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast,¹ but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People:* Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

The Holy Gospel:

John 15:9-17

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. 'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People:* We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People:* It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: Holy, holy, holy Lord

S 128

Setting: William Mathias (b. 1934)

The people stand or kneel

The Celebrant continues:

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People: We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues:

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

*Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All baptized Christians are invited and encouraged to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Please come forward to the altar rail when indicated by an usher. Please tell the priest if you need to receive a gluten-free wafer. After receiving the host (bread), please drink from the cup (which is the preferred and most hygienic way), or you may dip the host into the second cup, carefully avoiding touching the wine with your fingers. If you don't want to receive the wine in either manner, please indicate by crossing your arms over your chest. If you wish to receive a blessing instead of the sacrament, please cross your arms over your chest as the priest comes to you.

Why cook when you can enjoy a great meal prepared for you and your family? Please join us on Wednesday, September 9 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm and the following two Wednesdays for a meal and fellowship time, followed by a presentation by Lou on Invite-Welcome-Connect, time for small group conversation and brainstorming, and a wrap-up summary of each group's results.

Invite-Welcome-Connect is a ministry used successfully in many Episcopal churches around the country. This ministry can help us become an even more inviting and welcoming congregation that connects long-time members and new members more fully to the parish and one another. Many parishes grow by following this model, but all parishes grow in Spirit.

We hope families with children will be able to participate because their voices are so important to our future. Because we won't have a planned activity for the kids, they are welcome to do homework, read or play quiet computer games once the meal ends and the program begins.

This is an important part of our transition process. Please come to all evenings if possible or as many as you can. There will be a sign-up sheet available this Sunday. Please sign up to help us determine how much food to provide.

Guest Speaker...

We will have a special guest, Wanjiku Kironyo with us at Trinity on September 13th. Wanjiku is from Nairobi, Kenya. She is the Founder and Director of the Maji Mazuri Center, located in the Mathari Valley slum in Nairobi. She works with the poorest of the poor. She has visited Trinity in the past. Bill and Marina Shaw first met Wanjiku in the late 90's in Nairobi. They have visited her institute multiple times. They introduced Trinity to Wanjiku's project and as a result, some parishioners have been supporting children with school education and handicapped children at the Maji Mazuri Orphanage. Trinity Outreach Committee gave grants to Maji Mazuri via Crosscurrents International Institute, the non-profit organization Bill and Marina founded and run. Dan and Joan Swank recently visited Wanjiku in Nairobi. Wanjiku will share her story and work during coffee hour on Sunday, 13 September. Plan to join the conversation. It will be a special opportunity to meet her and learn about her work.

Music at Trinity

We have been greatly blessed with special music with Christina on the flute, some Brass thanks to Zach, and Tara on Cello...

We would like to expand our special music a bit by adding some vocal Music ensembles to our mix! (Think “choral” music, but not full time “Choir” commitment.) we are looking for people who may have an interest in singing in group vocal ensembles. You do NOT have to have a trained voice - Just a love of singing! At this point, we would like to try for a few seasonal numbers around Thanksgiving, Advent, Christmas. If you have interest, check in with Becky or Joel

Special music update: Sept 20th – Tara Mar (Cellist)
Sept 27th – Christina Roberts (flute)
Dec 13th – Tara Mar (Cellist)

The Blessing of a Civil Marriage...
